I. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must recognize that they have the authority to use objectively reasonable force to effect an arrest, to prevent escape, or to overcome resistance as authorized by the California Penal Code. For their safety, and for the safety and well-being of fellow officers, it is critical that peace officers know the laws governing the use of force.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- A. Discuss objectively reasonable force as stated by law
- B. Discuss the components of the Fourth Amendment standard for determining objective reasonableness as determined by the U.S. Supreme Court
- C. Explain the legal framework establishing a peace officer's authority during a legal arrest, including:
 - 1. A subject's requirement to submit to arrest without resistance
 - 2. Peace officer's authority to use objectively reasonable force during a detention or arrest
- D. Identify the circumstances set forth in the California Penal Code when a peace officer has the authority to use force
- E. Discuss the level of authority agency policies have regarding the use of force by a peace officer

I. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must understand how the principles of de-escalation can enhance contacts with the public and may result in improved decision-making, reduction in situational intensity, and opportunities for outcomes with greater voluntary compliance.

A. Define de-escalation

- 1. De-escalation is the process of using strategies and techniques intended to decrease the intensity of the situation
- 2. Recognize common misconceptions and benefits of de-escalation
- 3. Understand the history of de-escalation
- B. Recognize the four core concepts of de-escalation, to include:
 - 1. Self-control
 - 2. Effective communication
 - 3. Scene assessment and management
 - 4. Force options
- Understand the components of a Critical Decision-making Model including:
 - 1. Collect information
 - 2. Assess situation, threats, and risks
 - 3. Law and policy
 - 4. Plan
 - 5. Act, review, and reassess
- D. Recognize how tactical methods that use time, distance, cover, and concealment assist in de-escalation
- E. Recognize how strategic communication may enhance de-escalation

III. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must recognize that they have a range of force options available to them. However, in all cases the use of force must be objectively reasonable compared to the threat, resistance, and other circumstances known to the officer at the time the force was used.

E. Recognize the law regarding justifiable homicide by a public officer and the circumstances under which the homicide is considered justifiable

IV. LEARNING NEED

When a force option has been employed, peace officers' reports must include the critical information to ensure that the chronology, specifics of the events, and the people involved are properly documented.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- A. Describe why complete documentation of the use of force is critical to the peace officer and the peace officer's agency, to include:
 - 1. Justification for using force
 - 2. Relevant factors and detail
 - 3. De-escalation strategies and techniques utilized
- B. Supervisor responsibilities
 - 1. Use of force review and analysis
- C. State required reporting

VI. LEARNING NEED

Peace officers must be ready to, and capable of, safely taking control of a dangerous situation.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- A. Discuss factors that can affect a peace officer's response when threatened with danger, to include:
 - 1. Fear
 - a. Reasonable
 - b. Unreasonable
 - 2. Anger

- 2. Problem Solving/Decision-Making Analyzing situations and implementing plans to solve problems in a timely manner. Using verbal or physical skills to determine the appropriate resolution to a situation.
- 3. Legal Authority/Individual Rights The identification of laws and constitutional rights governing consensual encounters, detentions, and arrests.
- 4. Officer Safety The demonstration of situational and tactical awareness and appropriate response.
- 5. Communication The use of effective verbal and non-verbal skills to convey intended meaning and establish understanding.
- 6. Ethics Using accepted principles of conduct that govern decisions and actions based on professional values and expectations.
- 7. Stress Tolerance and Emotional Regulation maintaining self-control and making timely, rational decisions in stressful situations.

Presenters must use the POST-developed Scenario Test and the POST Scenario Competency Evaluation and Grading Test Forms or presenter-developed forms approved by POST, which minimally include the performance dimensions used for this scenario test.

M. A scenario test that requires the student to demonstrate presenter approved impact weapon techniques in a force on force simulation against an instructor who is dressed in a protective suit.

The test must simulate the physical and mental stress that would be imposed by an actual street encounter where the student would be required to use an impact weapon to control a suspect and effect an arrest.

The student is required to demonstrate proficiency in the following competencies:

- 1. Use of Force The ability to distinguish and apply objectively reasonable force options in given circumstances.
- 2. Problem Solving/Decision-Making Analyzing situations and implementing plans to solve problems in a timely manner. Using verbal or physical skills to determine the appropriate resolution to a situation.
