

Resolution OF THE Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In Appreciation of

Gregory Thomas Dossey

Whereas, Gregory Thomas Dossey began his law-enforcement career with the Los Angeles Police Department in 1972, and
Whereas, throughout the course of his career Greg Dossey performed with distinction in a variety of assignments, including training; and

Whereas, Greg Dossey served as a departmental trainer, sharing his passion, skills and expertise with numerous academy students as well as fellow officers; and

Whereas, Greg Dossey was a trailblazing authority, leading the way with new Arrest and Control techniques in California law enforcement training; and

Whereas, in 1999 Greg Dossey retired at the rank of sergeant from the Los Angeles Police Department, after providing many years of honorable service to the citizens of Los Angeles; and

Whereas, Greg Dossey served as an instructor and the Director of the Allan Hancock College Law Enforcement Academy, where he trained and mentored countless future peace officers; and

Whereas, Greg Dossey served as the President of the California Academy Directors Association, where he distinguished himself as a leader among law enforcement trainers; and

Whereas, throughout his career, Greg Dossey has served as a subject matter expert and worked on numerous committees for the California Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training; and

Whereas, in his capacity as a law enforcement trainer, Greg Dossey has worked tirelessly to increase the level and value of instruction for tomorrow's law enforcement officers, thus improving the quality of life for Californians served by peace officers trained by Greg; and

Whereas, Greg Dossey has dedicated his life to the mission of law enforcement training, ensuring future generations of law enforcement officers have the best level of skills and knowledge possible to ensure that local communities are well-served; and

Whereas, Greg Dossey's contribution to law enforcement has left a lasting legacy that will be realized for years to come;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training bestows its deepest gratitude and sincerest wishes for long, happy and well-earned retirement to Greg Dossey.

Peter Kurylowicz, Jr. POST Commission Chair

Robert A. Stresak POST Executive Director

June 11, 2014