Basic Course Waiver and Requalification Requirement

1008. Basic Course Waiver and Requalification Requirement

(a) Basic Course Waiver

(1) An individual who has completed training comparable to a POST-certified Regular Basic Course or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course may request a waiver of the basic course training requirement specified in Regulation 1005(a) or 1007(a). The application, evaluation, and examination processes are described in PAM Section D-11, Basic Course Waiver Process.

(A) A basic course waiver is valid for three years from the date it was granted. After three years, the requirements for requalification apply as specified in subsection 1008(b).

(B) A waiver of the Regular Basic Course training requirement will also satisfy the Specialized Investigators' Basic Course training requirement. However, a waiver of the Specialized Investigators' Basic Course training requirement does not satisfy the Regular Basic Course training requirement.

(b) Requalification Requirement for the Regular Basic Course – Standard Format and the Specialized Investigators' Basic Course

(1) Three-Year Requalification Requirement

Requalification is required for any individual who seeks appointment or reappointment to a position for which the Regular Basic Course (RBC) or the Specialized Investigators' Basic Course (SIBC) is required as the minimum training standard [refer to Regulations 1005(a) or 1007(a)] when the individual:

2. Been awarded a POST Basic Certificate or Specialized Basic Certificate, or
3. Been granted a waiver of the Regular Basic Course or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course in accordance with subsection 1008(a), but subsequently has a three-year-or-longer break from the last date of qualifying service*

OR

1. Successfully completed a POST-certified Regular Basic Course or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course, or
2. Been granted a waiver of the Regular Basic Course or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course in accordance with Regulation 1008(a), but subsequently has a three-year-or-longer break from the last date of successful completion of the Regular Basic Course or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course, or from the date the basic course waiver was granted, whichever is most recent. For the Six-Year Exception, [refer to 1008(b)(2)(B)(1)].

*Qualifying service is defined as serving in a California peace officer/Level I reserve officer position for which a POST-certified Regular Basic Course or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course was required by law. Service as a Level I reserve officer will be considered only for a Level I reserve who serves an average monthly minimum of 16 hours.

(2) Requalification Methods

When requalification is required, as determined above, it must be achieved before an individual may exercise peace officer powers. Upon successful requalification the individual is eligible, for up to three years, to be appointed or reappointed as a California peace officer/Level I reserve officer. The provisions and means for requalification are as follows:

(A) Repeating and successfully completing the appropriate basic course (RBC or SIBC) or

An individual who successfully completed a Regular Basic Course, Specialized Investigators' Basic Course, or the Basic Course Waiver Process on or after July 1, 1999, but who never served in a California peace officer/Level I reserve officer position for which a Regular or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course is required, may requalify by successfully completing a POST-certified Requalification Course one time within six years from the date of basic course or waiver process completion. The individual shall: 1) have satisfied the Regular Basic Course training requirement; 2) become reemployed as a peace officer after a three-year-or-longer break in service; and 3) not be described or included in subsection 1008(3)(A)(1.- 5.).
