RE: REQUEST FOR REQUALIFICATION EXEMPTION-OFFICER
Kevin Cordischi

Dear Chief Incontro,

This letter is in response to your request for an exemption from the requalification requirement per California Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) Regulation as it applies to Officer Kevin Cordischi (POST ID #C31-L07).

Regulation 1008 requires that an individual who successfully completed a Regular Basic Course (RBC), Specialized Investigators' Basic Course (SIBC), or the Basic Course Waiver (BCW) Process on or after July 1, 1999, but who never served in a California peace officer/Level I reserve officer position for which a Regular or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course is required, may requalify by successfully completing a POST-certified Requalification Course one time within six years from the date of basic course or waiver process completion. After six years, an individual must successfully complete the appropriate basic course (RBC or SIBC) to requalify, regardless of when the Requalification Course was completed. This is referred to as the "Six year Rule."

Cordischi's initial appointment as a peace officer on March 7, 2016 was 6 years and 17 days after his completion of the RBC on February 18, 2010. He did complete a Requalification Course on December 18, 2015, however, he needed to be appointed to the peace officer position within the 6 year period from his initial RBC graduation.

An analysis of Cordischi's work history shows that he did not have any qualifying service as a California peace officer to stop the expiration of the 6 year rule. The regulatory remedy is to require him to attend another RBC.

POST Regulation is a matter of state law under Title 11, Division 2 the California Code of Regulations, and the authority extended to POST Staff, including the Executive Director is limited to specific capacities.

Given the fact pattern of Cordischi's circumstances, neither I, nor my staff have the authority to exempt Cordischi from the retraining requirement pursuant to Regulation 1008.

However, should you desire to seek an appeal, the full Commission may have the authority take the matter under consideration at its next scheduled meeting. If your agency would like for the Commission to hear this appeal, you may do so at the next Commission Meeting which is scheduled to be held on Thursday, February 23, 2017, at the Anaheim Majestic Garden Hotel 900 South Disneyland Drive Anaheim, CA 92802. My staff is available to assist you with this matter.

If you have any questions regarding this matter you may contact Basic Training Bureau Chief Scott Loggins at (916) 227-4261 or sloggins@post.ca.gov.

Sincerely,

RE: Waiver for Kevin Cordischi POST ID # C31-L07

Dear Director Alvarez,

I am writing this letter to request an appeal of ineligibility for one of my Police Officers, Kevin Cordischi. Kevin was hired 18 days after his eligibility expired on February 18, 2016.

During a recent audit conducted by Charles Sandoval it was brought to our attention Kevin had failed to meet the requirements set forth in the POST Administrative Manual, regulation 1008(b) and therefore should not be working in the capacity as a peace officer.

This regulation was erroneously overlooked by our staff and the company that conducts our background investigations. Kevin Cordischi (POST ID # C31-L07), the applicant in question, was hired by the City of San Marino on March 7, 2016 just 18 days after the deadline of February 18, 2016 six years after his graduation date. Kevin completed and passed all of the other requirements for Police Officer including his background investigation and both the medical and psychological examination.

In light of this unfortunate oversight, I respectfully request that a waiver be extended to Kevin Cordischi so that he may continue to serve our community in the capacity of a sworn peace officer in the City of San Marino. Your consideration in this matter is greatly appreciated.

If you have any questions I can be reached at (626) 300-0720.

Sincerely,

John N. Incontro

Basic Course Waiver and Requalification Requirement

1008. Basic Course Waiver and Requalification Requirement

(a) Basic Course Waiver

(1) An individual who has completed training comparable to a POST-certified Regular Basic Course or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course may request a waiver of the basic course training requirement specified in Regulation 1005(a) or 1007(a). The application, evaluation, and examination processes are described in PAM Section D-11, Basic Course Waiver Process.

(A) A basic course waiver is valid for three years from the date it was granted. After three years, the requirements for requalification apply as specified in subsection 1008(b).

(B) A waiver of the Regular Basic Course training requirement will also satisfy the Specialized Investigators' Basic Course training requirement. However, a waiver of the Specialized Investigators' Basic Course training requirement does not satisfy the Regular Basic Course training requirement.

(b) Requalification Requirement for the Regular Basic Course – Standard Format and the Specialized Investigators' Basic Course

(1) Three-Year Requalification Requirement

Requalification is required for any individual who seeks appointment or reappointment to a position for which the Regular Basic Course (RBC) or the Specialized Investigators' Basic Course (SIBC) is required as the minimum training standard [refer to Regulations 1005(a) or 1007(a)] when the individual:

(A) Has previously served in a California peace officer/Level I reserve officer position with qualifying service* and has:

1. Successfully completed a POST-certified Regular Basic Course or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course, or
2. Been awarded a POST Basic Certificate or Specialized Basic Certificate, or
3. Been granted a waiver of the Regular Basic Course or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course in accordance with subsection 1008(a), but subsequently has a three-year-or-longer break from the last date of qualifying service*

OR

(B) Has NOT previously served in a California peace officer/Level I reserve officer position with qualifying service* and has:

1. Successfully completed a POST-certified Regular Basic Course or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course, or
2. Been granted a waiver of the Regular Basic Course or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course in accordance with Regulation 1008(a), but subsequently has a three-year-or-longer break from the last date of successful completion of the Regular Basic Course or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course, or from the date the basic course waiver was granted, whichever is most recent, For the Six-Year Exception, [refer to 1008(b)(2)(B)(1)].

*Qualifying service is defined as serving in a California peace officer/Level I reserve officer position for which a POST-certified Regular Basic Course or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course was required by law. Service as a Level I reserve officer will be considered only for a Level I reserve who serves an average monthly minimum of 16 hours.

(2) Requalification Methods

When requalification is required, as determined above, it must be achieved before an individual may exercise peace officer powers. Upon successful requalification the individual is eligible, for up to three years, to be appointed or reappointed as a California peace officer/Level I reserve officer. The provisions and means for requalification are as follows:

(A) Repeating and successfully completing the appropriate basic course (RBC or SIBC) or

(B) Successfully completing a POST-certified Requalification Course, (PAM D-10-2).

1. Six-Year Exception

An individual who successfully completed a Regular Basic Course, Specialized Investigators' Basic Course, or the Basic Course Waiver Process on or after July 1, 1999, but who never served in a California peace officer/Level I reserve officer position for which a Regular or Specialized Investigators' Basic Course is required, may requalify by successfully completing a POST-certified Requalification Course one time within six years from the date of basic course or waiver process completion. After six years, an individual must successfully complete the appropriate basic course (RBC or SIBC) to requalify, regardless of when the Requalification Course was completed.

(C) Successfully completing a POST-approved alternative job-related requalification procedure conducted by a presenter of a POST-certified Regular Basic Course. The individual 1) must have previously satisfied the Regular Basic Course training requirement; 2) is for the first time obtaining law enforcement employment after a three-year-or-longer break since successful completion of the Regular Basic Course; and 3) the individual's department has obtained prior written approval from POST for the use of an alternative procedure and verifies that the individual is currently proficient and meets or exceeds minimum performance standards established by the Commission.

(3) Exemptions

An exemption of the requalification requirement may be granted by the Executive Director or the Commission as follows:

(A) The Executive Director may grant an exemption to an individual who possesses a POST Basic Certificate and is returning to law enforcement after a three-year-or-longer break in service, and

1. Is re-entering a middle management or executive rank and will function at the second-level of supervision or above; or
2. Has been, with no longer than a 60-day break in service between law enforcement employers as a regular peace officer, employed continuously in another state as a full-time regular peace officer; or
3. Has served, with no longer than a 60-day break in service between law enforcement employers, continuously as a Level I reserve officer in California and the individual's agency chief executive attests in writing that the individual is currently proficient; or
4. The individual's employment, training, and education during the break in service provides assurance, as determined by POST, that the individual is currently proficient; or
5. Is re-entering law enforcement in a permanent or light duty assignment not involving general law enforcement duties if attested to in writing by the agency chief executive.

An individual seeking an exemption from completion of the requalification requirement shall submit a letter to the Executive Director, outlining the following criteria: 1) reason for the request; 2) description of the law enforcement position the applicant is seeking; and 3) documentation of prior employment, training, and education and the dates completed as it applies to the criteria outlined in subsection 1008(3)(A)(1.-5.).

(B) The Commission may, in response to a written request or on its own motion, upon a showing of good cause and based upon an individual's employment, proficiency, training, and education, exempt an individual from completion of the basic course requalification requirement. The individual shall: 1) have satisfied the Regular Basic Course training requirement; 2) become reemployed as a peace officer after a three-year-or-longer break in service; and 3) not be described or included in subsection 1008(3)(A)(1.-5.).
