

Penal Code and Commission Regulations

Penal Code section 830.1(a) - Appointment and authority section for specified peace officer positions (to include District Attorney Investigators)

Commission Regulation 1005(a)(1) - Specifies training requirement for District Attorney Investigators. Requires the Regular Basic Course.

Commission Regulation 1005(a)(2) - Outlines requirement for the completion of the District Attorney Investigator Transition Course in addition to the Regular Basic Course.

Penal Code section 832.4(b) - Requires any peace officer appointed under PC 830.1(a) obtain the POST Basic Certificate upon completion of probation but no later than 24 months after appointment.

Penal Code section 13510.1 - Requires the certificate program and states, in part, “for the purpose of fostering the professionalization, education, and experience necessary to adequately accomplish the general police service duties.”

Commission Regulation 1001 - Defines general law enforcement duties as: duties which include the investigation of crime, patrol of a geographic area, responding to the full range of requests for police services, and performing any enforcement action on the full range of law violations.

Commission Regulation 1011 - Outlines Basic Certificate requirements. Specifies the Regular Basic Course is the training standard to receive the General Basic Certificate. Only the General Basic Certificate attainment is required by PC 832.4(b).

Penal Code section 832.25(a) - Requires that all welfare fraud investigators who are appointed as peace officers pursuant to PC 830.35(a) after January 1, 2001 attend and complete the SIBC within one year of hire.

Commission Regulation 1005(a)(3) – Specifies the training requirement for Specialized Investigators. Requires the Specialized Investigators Basic Course or Regular Basic Course.

Penal Code section 832.25(b) - exempts any investigator who possesses a valid basic peace officer certificate awarded by POST or has successfully completed the RBC within three years from the SIBC requirement in subsection (a).