Purpose and Need for the Strategic Plan

The California Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) 2015 Strategic Plan was developed to serve as a roadmap to coordinate and direct the organization's efforts and resources. It is a document that unifies the efforts of staff and brings cohesiveness to their work and energy.

The Mission of POST is to: continually enhance the professionalism of California law enforcement in serving its communities. It was with this outcome in mind that POST staff and representatives of California law enforcement worked to define the goals, objectives, and strategies included in this document.

In this time of economic and social challenges for law enforcement and POST itself, this strategic plan becomes even more vital to influencing the decisions to focus decreasing funds and staffing on identified priorities. Because of its overarching importance, the strategic plan was developed with the input of all POST staff, the POST Commission Advisory Committee, and members of the POST Commission. This document is a unified directive that will guide the organization for the next three to five years.

As a living document, the Strategic Plan allows POST the agility to meet the emerging needs of California law enforcement into the next decade.

Timeline for Implementation of this Strategic Plan

The 2015 Strategic Plan will be presented to the Commission for approval on June 25, 2015. The companion Implementation Plan outlines task or action items identified for each strategic plan objective. The Design Implementation Team (DIT), consisting of a cross representation of POST staff, has been involved with the development of the strategic plan from the early stages, and will assume the role of monitoring the progress of the organization through the completion of the tasks and objectives.

Some of the tasks or action items will be quickly accomplished; however, some are complex and will take longer to plan and execute, taking completion out to the five-year target date.

It is the intent of the DIT to meet regularly on an internal basis and, annually with the external contributors to discuss progress and the potential to redirect efforts based on emerging trends or needs. In this way, the document will remain relevant and effective in supporting POST's mission.

Overview of Methodology and
Strategic Plan Process

At the February 2013 meeting, the Commission authorized the Executive Director to enter into a contract with an entity, later identified as California State University Sacramento Center for Collaborate Policy (CCP), to facilitate an update of the POST Strategic Plan.

CCP staff met with the Executive staff to discuss the project and the desired outcomes. It was agreed that the 2015 strategic plan would serve to prioritize the efforts and resources of POST for the next three to five years, and should be developed in collaboration with POST staff and representatives of those who POST serves.

POST identified a cross representation of employees to serve as members of the Design Team, to collaborate with CCP in the development of the strategy for the completion of the document. It was determined that the strategic plan update would be based on extensive research, surveys, interviews, and consultation with POST staff and POST external stakeholders.

CCP completed research to identify all existing POST programs and activities to document where efforts are currently expended.

The Design Team and CCP developed interview questions and a survey instrument and identified individuals internally and externally who offered a broad representation. CCP conducted over 100 interviews and sent over 80 surveys to obtain input from POST staff, Advisory Committee and Commission members, and representatives of law enforcement (executive, command, management, supervision, and line level), as well as public safety dispatchers, training managers, coroners, records supervisors, district attorney investigators, and investigators for state agencies.

The information was compiled into an Assessment Summary. Working from that document CCP conducted a two-day internal validation workshop to develop goals and objectives pertaining to POST staff and the functionality of the organization. After the workshop, the Design Team was expanded to include additional POST staff and became the Design Implementation Team (DIT) tasked with:

- ▶ Refining the vision statement, areas of focus, and the goals and objective (strategies)
- ▶ Developing action plans: tasks, timelines, roles, and responsibilities
- ▶ Developing metrics and performance measures to track the progress within the action plans
- ▶ Collaborating with CCP staff to develop the 2015 Strategic Plan draft

Another two-day workshop was then held with representatives of the Commission Advisory Committee, designated Commissioners, and the Design Implementation Team to focus on the goals and objectives pertaining to the needs of POST's clients, and the prioritization of POST's efforts and resources for the next three to five years.

Using the collected information, the DIT worked with CCP to develop the draft document and presented it to all POST staff for review and input.

The final draft was approved by the Executive Director. It will be presented to the Commission for approval on June 25, 2015.
