Article 4. Peace Officer Certification. § 1203. Peace Officer Disqualification. 11 CA ADC § 1203

(a) A certified peace officer shall have their certification revoked if the person is, or has become, ineligible to hold office as a peace officer pursuant to Government Code Section 1029.

(1) Each of the following is disqualified from holding office as a peace officer in the state:

(A) Any person who has been convicted of a felony,

(B) Any person who has been convicted of an offense in any other jurisdiction which would have been a felony if committed in this state,

(C) Any person who has been discharged from the military for committing an offense, as adjudicated by a military tribunal, which would have been a felony if committed in the state,

(D) Any person who, after January 1, 2004, has been convicted of a crime based upon a verdict or finding of guilt of a felony by the trier of fact, or upon the entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a felony,

(E) Any person who has been charged with a felony and adjudged by a superior court to be mentally incompetent commencing with Penal Code Section 1367,

(F) Any person who has been found not guilty by reason of insanity of any felony,

(G) Any person who has been determined to be a mentally disordered sex offender commencing with Welfare and Institutions Code Section 6300,

(H) Any person adjudged addicted or in danger of becoming addicted to narcotics, convicted, and committed to a state institution as provided in Welfare and Institutions Code Section 3051,

(I) Any person who, following exhaustion of all available appeals, has been convicted of, or adjudicated through an administrative, military, or civil judicial process requiring not less than clear and convincing evidence, including a hearing that meets the requirements of the administrative adjudication provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act commencing with Section 11340, as having committed, any act that is a violation of Penal Code Sections 115, 115.3, 116, 116.5, or 117 of, or of any offense described in Penal Code Sections 92, 118, 132, or 142, including any act committed in another jurisdiction that would have been a violation of any of those sections if committed in this state,

ADOPT

(J) Any person who has been issued the certification described in Penal Code Section 13510.1 and has had that certification revoked by the commission, has voluntarily surrendered that certification pursuant to subdivision (f) of Penal Code Section 13510.8, or having met the minimum requirement for issuance of certification, has been denied issuance of certification, or

(K) Any person previously employed in law enforcement in any state or United States territory or by the federal government, whose name is listed in the National Decertification Index of the International Association of Directors of Law Enforcement Standards and Training or any other database designated by the federal government whose certification as a law enforcement officer in that jurisdiction was revoked for misconduct, or who, while employed as a law enforcement officer, engaged in serious misconduct that would have resulted in their certification being revoked by the commission if employed as a peace officer in this state.
