Article 4. Peace Officer Certification. § 1214. Annual Reporting Requirements. 11 CA ADC § 1214

(a) The commission shall prepare an annual report, on behalf of the board, on the activities of the Commission, board, division, and subject agencies regarding peace officer certification pursuant to Penal Code Section 13512. The report shall include the following:

- (1) The number of requested applications submitted for certification.
- (2) The number of certifications granted or denied.
- (3) The number of events reported pursuant to paragraphs (1) to (5), inclusive, of subdivision (a) of Penal Code Section 13510.9, as listed below:
 - (A) The employment, appointment, or termination, or separation from employment or appointment, by that agency, of any peace officer. Separation from employment or appointment includes any involuntary termination, resignation, or retirement.
 - (B) Any complaint, charge, or allegation of conduct against a peace officer employed by that agency that could render a peace officer subject to suspension or revocation of certification by the commission pursuant to Penal Code Section 13510.8.
 - (C) Any finding or recommendation by a civilian oversight entity, including a civilian review board, civilian police commission, police chief, or civilian inspector general, that a peace officer employed by that agency engaged in conduct that could render a peace officer subject to suspension or revocation of certification by the commission pursuant to Penal Code Section 13510.8.
 - (D) The final disposition of any investigation that determines a peace officer engaged in conduct that could render a peace officer subject to suspension or revocation of certification by the commission pursuant to Penal Code Section 13510.8, regardless of the discipline imposed.
 - (E) Any civil judgment or court finding against a peace officer based on conduct, or settlement of a civil claim against a peace officer or an agency based on allegations of officer conduct that could render a peace officer subject to suspension or revocation of certification by the commission pursuant to Penal Code Section 13510.8.
- (4) The criteria and process for review and investigation by the division, the number of reviews, and the number of investigations conducted by the division.
